

IV International Piano Week

Cushing Academy

July 26 – August 1, 2026

The Return of an International Tradition

We are delighted to announce the return of the IV International Piano Week at the prestigious Cushing Academy. This unique event, scheduled from July 26 to August 1, 2026, continues its tradition of musical excellence and international exchange.

Our previous three editions were highly successful, featuring talented young pianists who forged creative connections across continents, representing nations such as Brazil, Italy, Korea, China, and the USA.

A Setting of Natural Splendor and Tranquility (Ênfase na Natureza)

Cushing Academy is situated in the charming town of Ashburnham, central Massachusetts. Our venue offers participants an unparalleled experience in the beautiful and tranquil setting of New England. Surrounded by splendid nature, the Academy provides an ideal retreat where artistic focus meets natural serenity. This environment fosters deep concentration, inspiring students both musically and personally.

Program & Faculty

The program gathers an experienced group of acclaimed faculty-artists representing the USA, Brazil, South Korea, and Russia. Driven by a spirit of shared music, camaraderie, and dedication to the piano, this week promises to be truly memorable.

Participants will have the valuable opportunity to network, observe peers in group settings, attend workshops and masterclasses, and engage closely with our expert faculty.
